Personal information obtained for the membership list is used solely for Guild business and will only be shared with ANWG for membership purposes. Membership year is April 1 to March 31, the following year. Membership includes a subscription to Running Threads, and eligibility to apply for scholarship funding and permits registration for the annual conference and AGM held after the end of the membership year in May or June. Member guilds may designate two guild members to attend conference. Household membership gives individual membership privileges to each person named living at that address.
